

■ Kips Bay Show House 2013

Today's NY Times extolls the design virtues of this year's Kip's Bay Decorator Show House with many of our regular clients in participation.

Jack Levy (Jack Levy Design) and Louis Garcia of Garcia Maldonado have created fantastic rooms for the fundraiser and garnered top billing in the Times article. We are thrilled Jack and Louis asked us to contribute to this great project.

Please read the article and go visit the beautiful house. It's open until June 4th.
